What is the "Full Moon Festival"?

The Mid-Autumn Moon Festival is held on the fifteenth day of the Eighth Moon. It is said that on this day in September the moon is fullest and most brilliant. It is an occasion for family reunion. Chinese families like to get together to eat "moon cakes" and watch the moon on the Festival night. It is said that the moon becomes more beautiful because there lives a divinely beautiful lady and her Jade Rabbit.

Chef Eileen presents the Becker House "Pirates of the Caribbean" costume contest prize to winner Niimah "Nemo" Ashong.
